Business:

Case V-2-18 – Daniels
This zoning request pertains to review of a request for the approval of variations in yard requirements to allow for the construction of a new home to be 15 feet instead of 25 feet off of a side yard line and 20 instead of 40 feet off of the front yard line, in an AG, Agricultural, District. These variances are being sought because of a flood hazard area being located on the property. The property in question in this zoning case is a 3.61 acre parcel of land located in Northeast corner of the Northeast Quarter of Section 2 of Indian Grove Township. The zoning administrator presented his report, exhibits and other information relative to this zoning case.

Philip Daniels, 8935 N – 2300 East Rd. Fairbury, IL. representing the applicant presented testimony relative to this zoning case. Mr. Daniels related that they could leave the house where it is marked out at or move it 5 to 10 feet. Mr. Daniels question as to where the property line is measured from. It was confirmed that the front yard is measured from the assumed right of way line. Mr. Daniels remarked that they can bring extra fill into the south end. Mr. Daniels commented on the recent flood and how the flood water was not even close to this place. A representative of a bank also visited the site agreeing that the building site is not in a flood plain.
Mr. Daniels related that the north end of this property was under water, but the south area did not flood. It was confirmed that the property had already been subdivided into two parcels, with Philip’s son Kyle planning on building a house on the property in question. The front yard measurements were explained as to how they are calculated. Mr. Daniels explained his measurements. It was confirmed that the road in front of the property was a blacktop road. The zoning board inquired about the well be located on the property line, questioning who gets the property. Mr. Daniels explained that they planned on keeping the property in the family. A potential well easement was discussed. Mr. Daniels noted that the two houses will be about 80 feet apart, and both houses will be at about the same elevation. Mr. Daniels confirmed that the new house will be on a crawl space.

No other interested parties presented testimony relative to this zoning case.

Mr. Daniels had no closing comments.

William Flott moved, seconded by James Blackard, that Case V-2-18 be approved allowing for the requested variations in yard requirements to allow for the construction of a new home to be 15 feet instead of 25 feet off of a side yard line and 20 instead of 40 feet off of the front yard line, in an AG, Agricultural, District.

This motion was then approved by a roll call vote.
