WHY DO I NEED TO FILE AN ASSUMED NAME CERTIFICATE?

The Illinois Business Code requires businesses to file Assumed Name Certificates. Also, most banks will not allow a business account to be opened without a proper filing.

The filing of an Assumed Name Certificate of registration of a company name imparts no real protection to the party filing. It is a formal process that informs the general public of the registered agent, and with whom official contact with the business can be made.

To find out more about the Assumed Business Names Act check 805 ILCS 405/Assumed Business Name Act.
